Pine Grove Grange
#289
Bath, NH 03740

Dear Sisters, Brothers and Friends:

It is indeed an honor and privilege to extend my personal and official commendations on the 100th Anniversary of the founding and establishment of the Pine Grove Grange in my hometown of Bath, NH.

Through out the Town of Bath and the surrounding region, Pine Grove Grange has been instrumental in organizing the community on projects such as the Route 302 Grange picnic area, the Mercy-Harriman first garden in Bath project, new chairs and tables, card tables, and stage curtains for the Town Hall, and community parties for Bath youth are but a few of the community projects that were originated by Pine Grove Grange.

All of these undertakings have benefited community life and this region. My public life and its origins; the ability to do presentations, speak, sing, and play musical instruments all had their roots in this Grange and the Bath Congregational Sunday School.

It is with these origins that I continue to serve the citizens of Bath, New Hampshire, Grafton County, the State of New Hampshire and the United States

With all good wishes for another 100 years!

Sincerely,

Raymond S. Burton
Executive Councilor
